

Do the right thing.

You have an obligation to report integrity, fraud, waste and abuse concerns.

Integrity and Compliance Helpline

If you have knowledge of misconduct, contact the Integrity and Compliance Department Helpline at:

1-800-985-1056

Employees, temporary workers and third party entities are required to report ethical or compliance concerns in the workplace or suspicions of improprieties related to claim submissions. Reports can be made anonymously and confidentially.

E-Mail to: integrity@highmark.com

You may also use the Integrity and Compliance Department's Confidential Post Office Box:

Highmark Health
Integrity and Compliance Department
P.O. Box 22492
Pittsburgh, PA 15222

Confidential fax:
Pittsburgh 1-412-544-2475
Camp Hill 1-717-302-3650

Fraud, Waste and Abuse Hotline

If you suspect potential Fraud, Waste or Abuse, call or email Financial Investigations and Provider Review at:

1-800-438-2478 – fipr@highmark.com

The Highmark Health enterprise maintains a reprisal-free environment and has a policy of non-retaliation and non-intimidation to encourage employees, third parties and their employees to raise ethical or legal concerns in good faith. Anyone who raises questions or reports concerns regarding potential or actual fraud, waste and abuse matters in connection with any of our government programs is protected from retaliation and retribution for False Claims Act complaints, as well as any other applicable anti-retaliation protections. All inquiries are confidential, subject to limitations imposed by law.

All phone numbers are available
24 hours a day/seven days a week.

